WRITING

I. Finish each of the following sentences in such a way that it means the same as the sentence printed before them.

1. If he had hurried, he wouldn't have missed the train.
2. It is said that diamonds are the most expensive jewelry
3. It wasn't until Shirley was eight years old that she began to read.
4. I have no intention of inviting him to my party.
5. The speed at which the motorcyclist rounded the corner was quite unbelievable.

II. Write about the benefits of wearing a school uniform for students.

Writing sample:

Most students wear uniforms to school and there are some reasons for this habit. First, students from different backgrounds all feel equal when they wear school uniforms. Students from struggling families will gain confidence when they feel the same as more privileged ones. Second, wearing uniform makes students feel proud of their schools. Whether the students take part in a competition or ride their bicycles on the street, the uniform lets students represent their school. Finally, wearing a uniform creates a serious learning environment for the students and teachers alike. Imagine classroom in which students wear whatever they like. The students would be distracted by each other's clothes. And when the students finish their studies, looking back at the uniform, they will be reminded of their beautiful schooldays.
